

Living Waters Camp and Conference Center is located off Route 30 just west of Schellsburg in Bedford County. The camp is affiliated with the United Church of Christ and open to all Christian denominations. Located on 147 acres, in the foothills of the Allegheny Mountains, the camp offers several weeks of summer youth camps. In addition, we host retreats, reunions, weddings, and family celebrations.

The site has eight cabins with two bath houses, a 12 room lodge, large pavilion, and an air conditioned dining hall that seats 100. The Pioneer area has 13 RV sites with electric and water, 4 hogans, and a pavilion with fireplace and mini kitchen. The camp also has a three bedroom guest house available to rent.

Living Waters has several miles of hiking trails, basketball court, volleyball, baseball field, gaga ball pit, horseshoe pits, modern playground, and six hole golf course. Shawnee creek flows through the camp and each May we host a Fishing Tournament. On the second weekend of August we are home to the Pennsylvania Lumberjack Competition.
