

Mission Grants for Individuals

The Keystone Conference offers several opportunities for grants for members and staff of UCC churches within the Conference. These grants are all within the Church Vitality category.

- Youth and Young Adult Programs and Leadership Development. Provides for youth and youth advisors participation in mission trips, educational events, and leadership training programs.

- Continuing Education for Pastors. Our associations have established criteria for continuing education for their authorized ministers. There is a wide variety of opportunities available, including the Keystone Academy for Ministry.

- Continuing Education for Groups. At times, there will be opportunities for continuing education in a group setting.

- Gwilym T. Williams Scholarship. Part-time or full-time undergraduate or post-graduate degree in certain fields. For 2026, this scholarship is limited to members of UCC churches in the Mountain Valley Association.

- Henry Berg Scholarship. This fund was established to help certain children with the furtherance of their education.

Scan the QR code or go to keystoneucc.org/mission-grants-committee for application forms and full details on terms and conditions and reporting requirements.

Email: keystoneuccgrants@gmail.com

Mission Grants for Organizations

The Keystone Conference has five categories of grants for churches and other faith communities within the boundaries of the Conference:

- Facilities and Operations. These grants fund projects related to the physical building, such as accessibility, equipment repair or replacement, or new signage or lighting.

- Reaching Out. Grants help meet the practical needs of the surrounding area, like community meals, summer lunch programs, and food or clothing banks.

- Church Vitality. Grants support forming new congregations, renewing existing ones, new programs for youth and young adults, and leadership development.

- Innovation. Grants will fund projects that offer a bold and innovative approach to ministry or apply an old model in a new way to address a particular need.

- Outdoor Ministries. Grants fund projects such as renovation of a barn to provide a picnic pavilion, a women's retreat at camp with nature theme, and outdoor accessibility updates.

Grant awards range between $1,000 and $1,500, except for Innovation or Outdoor Ministries grants, which can go up to $5,000

Scan the QR code or go to keystoneucc.org/mission-grants-committee for application forms and full details on terms and conditions and reporting requirements.

Email: keystoneuccgrants@gmail.com

Mission Grants for Individuals

The Keystone Conference offers several opportunities for grants for members and staff of UCC churches within the Conference. These grants are all within the Church Vitality category.

- Youth and Young Adult Programs and Leadership Development. Provides for youth and youth advisors participation in mission trips, educational events, and leadership training programs.

- Continuing Education for Pastors. Our associations have established criteria for continuing education for their authorized ministers. There is a wide variety of opportunities available, including the Keystone Academy for Ministry.

- Continuing Education for Groups. At times, there will be opportunities for continuing education in a group setting.

- Gwilym T. Williams Scholarship. Part-time or full-time undergraduate or post-graduate degree in certain fields. For 2026, this scholarship is limited to members of UCC churches in the Mountain Valley Association.

- Henry Berg Scholarship. This fund was established to help certain children with the furtherance of their education.

Scan the QR code or go to keystoneucc.org/mission-grants-committee for application forms and full details on terms and conditions and reporting requirements.

Email: keystoneuccgrants@gmail.com

Mission Grants for Organizations

The Keystone Conference has five categories of grants for churches and other faith communities within the boundaries of the Conference:

- Facilities and Operations. These grants fund projects related to the physical building, such as accessibility, equipment repair or replacement, or new signage or lighting.

- Reaching Out. Grants help meet the practical needs of the surrounding area, like community meals, summer lunch programs, and food or clothing banks.

- Church Vitality. Grants support forming new congregations, renewing existing ones, new programs for youth and young adults, and leadership development.

- Innovation. Grants will fund projects that offer a bold and innovative approach to ministry or apply an old model in a new way to address a particular need.

- Outdoor Ministries. Grants fund projects such as renovation of a barn to provide a picnic pavilion, a women's retreat at camp with nature theme, and outdoor accessibility updates.

Grant awards range between $1,000 and $1,500, except for Innovation or Outdoor Ministries grants, which can go up to $5,000.

Scan the QR code or go to keystoneucc.org/mission-grants-committee for application forms and full details on terms and conditions and reporting requirements.

Email: keystoneuccgrants@gmail.com

